

Dr Geoff Pryde
Centre for Quantum
Dynamics

Geoff Pryde is internationally recognised in the area of optical quantum science for his realisation of a high performance all-optical quantum computer logic gate with co-workers, published in leading science journal Nature. His previous post was as Senior Research fellow in the School of Physical Sciences at UQ.

Pro
Sc

Paul Scuffham is Chair of
He is also Research Lead
Research Program in Envi
Healthy Living and will pla
Quantitative Research Me
Logan campus. He joins fr Population Health at UQ an University of York.

Professor Xu Yi-Chong
Centre for Governance and Public Policy, Griffith Asia Institute

Professor Xu Yi-Chong joins the strategic research program for Security, Democracy and Public Policy from the Political Science Department at St Francis Xavier University, Canada. Her research interests are energy security in China and India and the influence of civil servants in international organisations.

Ass
Ked
Aus

Associate Professor Ked
disciplinary environmen
His research is on estua nutrient dynamics with physical coupling and p processes. He comes to Kong University of Scie

Griffith University enjoys an international reputation for research excellence. Our appointments reinforce that reputation and provide even greater depth. Joining the way Griffith University is going from strength to strength.

Get smarter.